1. What is deep-sea diving?

- Deep-sea diving is the descending into deep water and use of a breathing apparatus. (Scuba gear) Deep-sea divers are under water for an extended period of time.

http://www.bartleby.com/65/di/diving-d.html
This website provides online information from books and encyclopedias.

A deep-sea diver with a fish.

2. Who invented gear that allows people to breathe underwater?

- In 1878 Henry Fleuss invented a self-contained underwater breathing unit.

http://www.divinghistory.com/first-scuba.htm
This website is dedicated to the history of the sport of diving.
Timelines, articles, books, and other links are available for viewing.

A scuba diver with a school of fish.

3. What is the main reason people deep-sea dive?

- The main reason for deep-sea diving is fishing for different things such as coral, pearls, or sponged. Many people deep-sea dive to repair and examine bridges docks, or parts of ships. Many recover valuables from sunken ships.

http://www.bartleby.com/65/di/diving-d.html
This website provides online information from books and encyclopedias.

4. When did scuba diving become more popular?
   - Before the 1950’s scuba diving was limited to just skilled and very adventurous divers. The Professional Association of Dive Instructors began offering instructions of to scuba diving to any participants willing to scuba dive.
   http://beginnersguide.com/scuba/history-of-scuba-diving/
   This website is a great source to learn about early scuba divers, more history of the sport, and a lot about the modern day uses of scuba diving.

5. Why is it called scuba diving?
   - SCUBA stands for "Self Contained Underwater Breathing Apparatus"
   http://www.reference.com/browse/wiki/Scuba_diving
   This website offers reference on all topics, as well as a dictionary source, a thesaurus source, an encyclopedia source, and a World Wide Web source as well.

6. How many certified divers are there in the world?
   - Present day there are well over 6 million certified scuba divers across the globe. Many of these divers teach willing participants about the under water adventure of scuba diving and deep-sea diving.
   http://www.reference.com/browse/wiki/Scuba_diving
   This website offers reference on all topics, as well as a dictionary source, a thesaurus source, an encyclopedia source, and a World Wide Web source as well.
To play a memory match game about under water creatures, click below!
http://www.mbayaq.org/lc/kids_place/concentration/

To watch a video from a Thailand resort giving an informational tour of what scuba diving is like, click below!
http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=-8200377046026733692&q=scuba+diving&time=25000