Agenda Items

Reports and Discussions

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT. Updates were provided on the District's building project, parent-teacher conferences, and our Early Childhood Education program's receipt of ISBE's Gold Circle of Quality award.

STRATEGIC PLAN UPDATE. The administration will be providing monthly updates on the District's strategic plan that was created in 2020. An overview of the collaborative process that was used to create the plan was presented. Information on the progress of the plan's implementation will be assessed in the coming months. For more details, see the full report in BoardDocs or review information presented during the meeting by clicking the link below.

ENROLLMENT AND STAFFING REPORT. Our student enrollment increased slightly from the year before, and there was an addition of two staff positions for this school year.

2022 LEVY UPDATE. At this time we are still waiting on the tax extension information from Cook County in order to calculate our upcoming levy. We anticipate receiving this information by early November and will hold a truth-in-taxation hearing during the December Board meeting prior to approving the final levy. For more details, see the full report in BoardDocs or review information presented during the meeting by clicking the link below.
